

TASK1 Put the beginnings and ends together, using expressions from the box. (There are too many expressions.)

a black cat all year a mirror an old shoe dark hair four potatoes bad luck seven years' some money some salt some wine the baby the sky the weather your left hand

If you see _____, _____ will be fine tomorrow.
If you spill _____, you'll get _____ soon.
If _____ is red this evening, you'll have _____.
If your first visitor in the New Year has _____, throw _____ over your shoulder.
If _____ itches, you'll have _____ bad luck.
If you break _____, you'll have good luck _____.

TASK2 Put in if or when and choose the correct verb forms.

- 1 _____ I (get / will get) enough money, I (travel / 'll travel) round the world.
- 2 _____ it (rains / will rain) this afternoon, we (stay / 'll stay) at home.
- 3 I (close / 'll close) the curtains _____ it (gets / will get) dark.
- 4 _____ I (get / 'll get) older, I (stop / 'll stop) playing rugby.
- 5 You can't go home now, but you can go _____ the game ('s / 'll be) finished.
- 6 Get off the buss quickly _____ it (stops / 'll stop).
- 7 _____ you (say / 'll say) that again, I (hit / I'll hit) you.
- 8 _____ I (go / 'll go) to bed tonight, I (dream / 'll dream) about you..
- 9 _____ you (are / 'll be) in this country next year, I hope you (come / 'll come) and see us.